SECTION 7: GENERAL INFORMATION

CrimCheck is collecting your personal information in this Form in order to conduct a National Police History Check (NPHC) on you. It does this through a contractual arrangement with CrimTrac - the government agency responsible for criminal history record checking. CrimCheck is an "Accredited User" of the system and has contractual arrangements with Crimtrac to collect personal information on its behalf in order to conduct NPHC on individuals who are seeking access to positions of employment, other engagements or entitlements or benefits. Accredited Organisations such as CrimCheck and their clients (such as employers) use the personal information determine suitability for the position/entitlement/benefit which you are applying for.

CrimTrac recommend that you seek further information about the relevant legislative framework, if any, for the position/entitlement/ benefit you are applying for from the Accredited Organisation. In some circumstances Accredited Organisations may have arrangements with overseas entities for administrative or other purposes. CrimTrac recommend that you seek further information from the Accredited Organisation at Section 3 for circumstances where your information is likely to be disclosed to overseas recipients.

Unless statutory obligations require otherwise, the information provided on this Form will not be used without your prior consent for any purpose other than in relation to the assessment of your suitability or to maintain the records of CrimTrac and Australian Police Agencies 1; or for the general law enforcement purposes of Australian Police Agencies. You will be required to complete another consent form for any future checks.

NATIONAL POLICE HISTORY CHECK (NPHC)

A NPHC is an integral part of the assessment of your suitability.

Information on this Form will be used by CrimTrac and Australian Police Agencies for checking action; it will also be used to update records held about you by CrimTrac and Australian Police Agencies.

Organisations will access their records to obtain and disclose Police History Information (PHI) that relates to you to:

- a. the Accredited Organisation named in Section 3 above; and
- b. where applicable the employer/organisation named in Section 4 above.

PHI may include outstanding charges, warrant information and criminal convictions/findings/plea of guilt recorded against you that may be disclosed according to the laws of the relevant jurisdiction and, in the absence of any laws governing the release of that information, according to the relevant jurisdiction information release policy.

LIMITATIONS ON ACCURACY AND USE OF PHI

While every care has been taken by CrimTrac to conduct a search of PHI held by Australian Police Agencies that relate to the applicant, the accuracy and quality of this NPHC depends on accurate identification of the Applicant (including aliases) according to the information provided in the Informed Consent Form and the comprehensiveness of police records. If the applicant does not complete the information requirements in this Form the success and validity of the NPHC will be compromised. You should note that the existence of a record does not mean that you will be assessed automatically as being unsuitable. Each case will be assessed on its merit, so it is in your interest to provide full and frank details in the Form.

If for any reason you do not agree with the results of your NPHC, please notify the Organisation that you submitted the check through in the first instance, so that the NPHC dispute process can be initiated.

The release of PHI by Australian Police Agencies is subject to relevant Spent Convictions, non-disclosure legislation or information release policies.
